

THE CRAWFORD CRONICLE

Issue 5:

Welcome to another year everyone. We hope you enjoyed your Christmas break as much as we did. As Issue 5 comes out to you we are already racing towards Easter, ¼ of the way towards our next Christmas! Here are some memories from our Christmas's.

Stu enjoyed the fishing this year at Lake Benmore.

The trout were plenty and he managed to win competition with a fish weighing 2.1kg.

Here's to tasty fish!

Well no points for guessing what the Crawford family enjoying for lunch on this lovely Kaikoura day.

Here are the four children & a friend with lots of yummy crayfish.

The start of the year has also seen changes in our office. As we entered the New Year we said farewell Lea Hutson. Our office is not quite the same. Lea worked for us off & on for eight years, between children, and has now decided to move onto new challenges. However, with the last little Crawford ready for school, Vicki has now moved back into the office and is enjoying the challenge of working (with Donald) again!

IN THE FRAMING NEWS

This month we regretfully bring you two finishes that we are no longer able to supply. At this time we can no longer source the foil used for these. We have a small quantity of both in stock so if you like these, order quick

We are always looking at new styles, finishes and ways of finishing. Your feedback and ideas are always welcome. Donald or Stu can be contacted on 03 323 7354 or by email at crawfordmouldings@xtra.co.nz

"Some Amusement to end our spot!!" Fishing for a Week

A man phones home from the office and tells his wife, "Something has just come up. I have the chance to go fishing for a week. It's the opportunity of a lifetime. We leave right away, so can you pack my clothes, my fishing equipment and especially my blue silk pajamas? I'll be home in an hour to pick them up."

He hurries home, grabs everything and rushes off.

A week later he returns. His wife asks, "Did you have a good trip?"

"Oh yes, great!" He says. "But you forgot to pack my blue silk pajamas."

"Oh no I didn't, I put them in your tackle box!"
